inick Tertorich, local promoter, has decided to go after the Willard-Fulton match for the world's titla, having offered a purse of $100,000 for a contest of 20 rounds. Manager Collins received an offer for a match with Jack Dempsey at Milwankee but said after considering it: "Fulton will get more money as champion of the world boxing Dempsey and therefore Willard comes first for he is sure the Minnesota giant will beat Willard if they ever meet. It is a business proposition with Collins and Dempsey will be considered later.

Western League

Des Mones, Iowa, March 6.—Formal adoption of a schedule of 146 games with the season opening May 1 and ending Sept. 15. was the only remaining business before the club owners of the Western league here today.

E. W. Dickerson, president of the league today and that a sufficient sale for the season had been secured at Hutchinson and Topeks to guarantee the success of the teams in those cities, and added that he looked for a good season with all clubs in the circuit more compact than ever before.
